

WHY IS SATAN PROMOTING THE NAME OF JESUS?

IS HE PREPARING THE WORLD FOR THE FALSE JESUS (ANTICHRIST)?

Leon E. Good

March 20, 2023

2 Thessalonians 2:8-12 (KJV) And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The first question you may ask as you read the title above is why I would proffer those two questions as a title and subtitle.

Well, allow me to get straight to the point of this writing: I have noticed that beginning in 2021 and forward a pronounced effort by non-Christian forces to promote the name of Jesus. The four promotions I wish to analyze are as follows:

- The Chosen Series
- He Gets Us – Commercials – even on the Super Bowl – costing an estimated 100 million dollars.
- The Asbury Revival
- The “Jesus Revolution” movie.

Please read this excerpt as we prepare to review above promotions:

The “Jesus” the World Loves – The Berean Call

Excerpt: The world, which rarely looks to the Bible for information about Jesus, is satisfied with any other source, as long as their Jesus is devoid of judgmentalism, exclusiveness, negativity, and can be reflected in every one’s belief system. Many “like” Jesus, including some atheists who speak highly of the character of their Jesus. Hindu gurus who flooded the West during the 1980s wrote books describing their avatar “Jesus.” Islamic clerics praise Jesus (Isa in Arabic) although they deny that he is the Son of God (i.e., Allah, who has no son).

All of that is expected of the world. Yet in our day when much of the church is heavily influenced by the world, the “Jesus” the world loves is often reflected in the beliefs of professing Christians as well as some of those who may be born again. A false Jesus who manifests characteristics that appeal to the fleshly nature of Christians is a powerfully seductive device of Satan, who is “the god of this world” (2 Corinthians:4:3-4).

Those who profess to be Christians quite often have ideas about Jesus that are just as wrong as those people who don't claim to be Christians. For example, Jehovah's Witnesses believe that Jesus is a created god and that He is also Michael the Archangel. Mormons believe Jesus is the spirit brother of Lucifer and that He was married and had children. The followers of Christian Science and the Religious Science religions believe that Jesus was simply a man upon whom the "Christ empowerment" came. Roman Catholics believe that the bread and wine of the Eucharist can be transubstantiated, or changed, into the literal body and blood of Jesus, who is then ingested into one's stomach. Lutherans believe that Jesus is consubstantiated, or present, "in, with, and under" the bread and wine of communion. Such unbiblical beliefs are a mere handful among hundreds promoted by various Christian denominations and cults. Yet what is even more appalling is that an inquiry about Jesus today among those who call themselves evangelicals (Bible-believing Christians!) too often reveals "another Jesus" and a "false Christ." How does that happen?

Most of the following in this document will be a collection of resources that I have had access to as I have researched the above promotions.

But before I provide those resources, I wish to share with you what my proposed answer is to those questions above. I strongly suspect that Satan is preparing the world for the appearance of a false Jesus.

I would remind you from my past writing that I received information from David Spangler, an occultist of high ranking, representing the Lucis Trust in New York city and the Findhorn Foundation of the United Nations who made this statement: They will introduce their king coming in the heavens with holographic imagery, and that it will be viewed by all people throughout the earth. He also said that they would explain the disappearance of Christians as those who were not ready for the Age of Aquarius. He indicated that they already in the late 1990's had scripted what was going to be given to the major News Media to explain that disappearance. Remember Satan can read the Scriptures and he is expecting God's prophetic promises and warnings to be fulfilled – but only God knows when.

Please take special note of this book's title - We quote from the following book by occultist Alice Bailey "THE REAPPEARANCE OF THE CHRIST" pgs. 1&2 - Copyright ©1998 LUCIS TRUST.

Right down the ages, in many world cycles and in many countries (and today in all) great points of tension have occurred which have been characterised by a hopeful sense of expectancy. Someone is expected and His coming is anticipated. Always in the past, it has been the religious teachers of the period who have fostered and proclaimed this expectancy and the time has always been one of chaos and difficulty, of a climaxing point at the close of a civilisation or culture and when the resources of the old religions have seemed inadequate to meet men's difficulties or to solve their problems. The coming of the Avatar, the advent of a Coming One and, in terms of today, the reappearance of the Christ are the keynotes of the prevalent expectancy. When the times are ripe, the invocation of the masses is strident enough and the faith of those who know is keen enough, then always He has come and today will be no exception to this ancient rule or to this universal law. For decades, the reappearance of the Christ, the Avatar, has been anticipated by the faithful in both hemispheres—not only by the Christian faithful, but by those who look for Maitreya and for the Bodhisattva as well as those who expect the Imam Mahdi.

When men feel that they have exhausted all their own resources and have come to an end of all their own innate possibilities and that the problems and conditions confronting them are beyond their solving or handling, they are apt to look for a divine Intermediary and for the Mediator Who will plead their cause with God and bring about a rescue. They look for a Saviour. This doctrine of Mediators, of Messiahs, of Christs and of Avatars can be found running like a golden thread through all the world faiths and Scriptures and, relating these world Scriptures to some central source of emanation, they are found in rich abundance everywhere. Even the human soul is regarded as an intermediary between man and God; Christ is believed by countless millions to act as the divine mediator between humanity and divinity.

I also wish to remind you that all four movements listed above are ecumenical, which means the Vatican (Satan’s current seat) is in approval of these promotions. Please remember that the Jesus in Roman Catholicism is just the pagan god Baal renamed Jesus. Please read Two Babylons, or Papal Worship Proved to be the Worship of Nimrod and His Wife – by Rev. Alexander Hislop – PDF is available HERE.

I would suggest that you do not discount any of my above analysis until you do considerable research of your own. Hopefully the following will assist you in that effort.

The Chosen Series – A Critique

NEW BOOKLET – Lighthouse Trails: THE CHOSEN Series—10 Critical Concerns

Excerpt: Concern #1:

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? (2 Corinthians 6:14)

The Chosen series was initiated and inspired from a partnership between Dallas Jenkins, an evangelical filmmaker, and three Mormon businessmen, Jeffrey and Neal Harmon and Derral Eves after the three men viewed a film written and directed by Jenkins called The Shepherd. The Mormon influence on The Chosen is considerable: the executive producer is Mormon, the distributor is Mormon, certain episodes were shot on a special Mormon set in Utah, and the crowdfunding and media expertise is provided by Mormons.

In 2017, Dallas Jenkins had reached a self-described career low as a filmmaker when he was given an opportunity to partner with the successful Mormon businessmen who believed they could create a “global phenomenon”¹ with The Chosen. With the Mormon church’s long-standing hope and efforts to be viewed by the evangelical church as just another denomination and Jenkin’s unsatisfied desire to be a successful Christian filmmaker, it seemed like the perfect match to help each other out. Thus, the birth of The Chosen.²

Those who defend The Chosen may say that so far (through Season 2), no Mormon doctrine has been introduced into the series, and therefore, it’s not a problem that Mormons and evangelicals are working together. If this were a secular film, perhaps that would be a valid argument. But in a film series that is supposed to be depicting the life and ministry of Jesus Christ and His disciples and which claims to complement the Bible’s message, then 2 Corinthians 6:14 must be applied where believers (who are to be in the light) are instructed not to be unequally yoked with those who are in spiritual darkness.

It is ironic that forty years ago, Christians were flocking to their churches by the tens of thousands to watch a film called The God Makers, which warned about Mormonism, most particularly about the false Jesus of Mormonism. Today, in stark contrast, countless Christians are enthusiastically watching a film about Jesus that is Mormon-influenced with seemingly little concern or spiritual discernment.

Here are additional resources on “The Chosen” series which will assist you in understanding:

- Gullible Laodicean Christians Watching Series ‘The Chosen’ Are Being Led To ‘Mother Rome’ And Praying To Mary By Catholic Actor Jonathan Roumie – Now The End Begins - November 27, 2022 - By Geoffrey Grider

Excerpt: Actor who plays Jesus on ‘The Chosen’ Jonathan Roumie announced today his launch of ‘The Rosalet’, a rosary for all those Laodicean Christians who support this Roman Catholic series.

The actor who plays Jesus is a hardcore, pope-worshipping Roman Catholic who greatly desires to ‘convert’ born again and Bible-deficient Christians to Rome and its Pontifex Maximus. We wrote about this over a year ago, showing you Jonathan Roumie standing in the head of the serpent and paying obeisance to the unholy, childless ‘father’ Pope Francis. Today on Twitter, Roumie excitedly announced his launch of his new jewelry offering called ‘The Rosalet’, which is a beginners version of the Mary-worshipping Rosary. I wonder who his primary customer base will be? Hmm, that’s a tough one.

Just kidding, that’s super easy to answer. The target market for Jonathan Roumie’s new ‘artisanal quality & the most innovative & fashion-fwd prayer weapon’ the Rosalet is you. By you I mean any and all Christians who fawn over this streaming series produced by Mormons and Roman Catholics like it was Bible, it’s not, and who watch more tell-a-vision than they do spending time in Bible study.

“He Gets Us”

7 Problems with the He Gets Us Campaign - By Natasha Crain / October 27, 2022

Excerpt: ...And therein lies the problem with He Gets Us. The Jesus of this campaign is nothing more than an inspiring human who relates to our problems and cares a whole lot about a culturally palatable version of social justice.

Since many people will be discussing the campaign in coming months, I want to highlight seven significant problems to watch out for and to share with friends who may be misled by what they see.

Here is the listing of the 7 problems:

1. The fact that Jesus “gets us,” stripped from the context of His identity, is meaningless.
2. Jesus is presented as an example, not a Savior.
3. The campaign reinforces the problematic idea that Jesus’s followers have Jesus all wrong.

4. The campaign reinforces what culture wants to believe about Jesus while leaving out what culture doesn't want to believe.
5. The campaign characterizes the so-called culture war in terms of secular social justice rather than underlying worldview differences.
6. The campaign's stated goal is about inspiration, not a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.
7. The next steps offered by He Gets Us could lead someone far away from truth rather than toward it.

Some Additional links for research:

What is the "He Gets Us" campaign? – Sandy Simpson – ACT – 2/4/23

Excerpt: There is a new campaign called "He Gets Us" presenting a false Jesus. It is funded to the tune of $1 billion and promotes a "Woke" Jesus. A $20 million ad buy will be spent on ads during the Superbowl. #0

Following the money and backers leads to organizations such as Servant Christian Foundation #1, whose donors remain anonymous. However, this organization's website is linked to The Church of the Servant #2 and The Seattle School of Theology & Psychology #3.

Marketing firm Haven conceptualized and crafted the non-denomination campaign, and popular ministry partner Gloo, which uses data to help Churches grow and develop receivables, supported the campaign, ensuring partners have the ability to respond to all upcoming inquiries. #4

They promote another "Jesus" focusing on how Jesus was "a marginalized immigrant refugee who was bullied for his empathy." They aim to bring a "Jesus" that is tolerant of all human behavior. Here is a quote from their site:

Have you ever experienced frustration? Sorrow? Temptation? So has Jesus. Jesus understood what life was like for people in his day — especially for the marginalized. He was drawn to those on the fringes because he was one too: An immigrant. Homeless. Arrested. Bullied. Through it all, Jesus welcomed outcasts, stood up for women, hung out with troublemakers, even befriended enemies. He did it because of his radical love, empathy, and acceptance for all of us. They try to categorize Jesus as some kind of social "activist." Jesus invited all to participate in the love, but not everyone was interested. The powerful and the wealthy were often threatened by Jesus' movement because it always resisted systems of oppression. After all, many benefited from oppressing the poor, the sick, women, and even certain races that Jesus embraced throughout his activism. So, they didn't just reject his invitation; they killed him for it. #5

"He Gets Us" Agenda is Preaching another Jesus, another Gospel #End Times Apostasy - The Third Heaven Traveler – 2/12/23

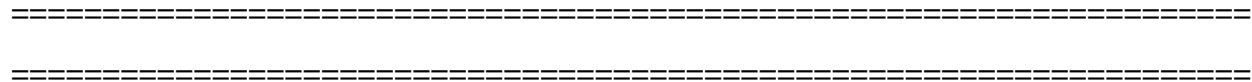

2 Corinthians 11:4 (KJV) For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

Super Bowl LVII 57 is tomorrow Sunday, February 12, 2023. Over 100 million viewers expected and of course the top Advertising comes out.

Interesting this year as most of you know, there will be multimillion dollar ads running that are supposedly presenting Jesus Christ to the world.

"HE GETS US"

I as many of you, have checked out their website and like ALL the true believers in Jesus Christ - I join in sounding the alarm and calling out the great apostasy of this LAODICEAN church age garbage full of lies. They are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL and ANOTHER CHRIST. Jesus' LOVE is NOT unconditional, to believe the false teaching of He Gets Us, one is left with the impression that Jesus accepts you as you are and loves you NO MATTER WHAT.

Asbury Revival

Asbury Revival: The Ecumenical School of Mysticism - Phoenix Rising: Birthing the Strong Delusion

Asbury Theological Seminary has a painted labyrinth. Labyrinths are spiritual portals that ancient pagans used to enter the spiritual realm.

Asbury Seminary invites you to Awaken spiritually through meditation.

They also have rooms with great acoustics, which are perfect for repetitive chanting during Lectio Divina prayer.

This is a Liberal "Christian" College.

Complete Article:

People are divided over the Asbury revival. This is partially due to their definition of revival. Orthodox Christians may use a Scriptural definition from Second Kings 22 through 23, which states that King Josiah sent Shaphan to the house of God to count the offerings, so they could repair the temple. Shaphan found the Book of Gods' Law in the temple and he read it to the king (2 Kings 22, KJV). The King repented of his sins and he read the Book to the people. The people repented of their sins and returned to the written Word of God. They removed the pagan idols from God's house. Then, they drove out the apostate priests and those who followed heretical teachings (2 Kings 23, KJV). In this pattern of revival, the people heard and returned to the law of God. Then they repented for their sins and removed the idols and apostate priests from the house of God.

However, Charismatics define revival as a special visitation of the Holy Spirit that draws people to one place of worship. They say it is a season of unusual visitation of God. They define this experience variously as; a sweet presence, a tangible wave of the Spirit, or the fire of God. Charismatics often travel great distances to experience the "fire of God," or anointing of God because they believe they can carry it back to their church and release or activate spiritual gifts. They are always looking to ride the next wave of the Spirit. This pattern is experience-driven. There is a move away from reading the Scripture.

Let us consider the Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore Kentucky. Asbury "was founded in 1923" with an emphasis on ecumenicalism. They work in unity with 93 denominations around the world. This fusion includes United Methodists, African Methodist Episcopal, and Wesleyans.^[i] Wesleyan tradition is engrained in the philosophy of Friend's University, which incorporates "50 denominational traditions."^[ii] In keeping with Friend's University Asbury Seminary states that they combine "an academics degree that is coupled with deeply rooted spiritual formation practices."^[iii] In spiritual formation, the practitioner focuses on the Holy Spirit to guide them toward a "union with God." This university calls this Christian Mysticism. These spiritual practices include prayer walking on a labyrinth, "contemplative prayer, and Lectio Divina – the tradition of monastic practice of scriptural reading...."^[iv]

Richard Foster of Friends University explains spiritual formation (contemplative prayer).^[v] He warns that contemplative prayer (meditation) is not safe for novices. Mr. Foster does not issue such a warning about other forms of mediation. He explains that through silent contemplation, one may travel deep within the spiritual realm, where they meet forces that are not divine. He says many spiritual beings do not serve God. Therefore, he advises you to pray for protection before engaging in contemplative prayer.^[vi] Yet, the Bible does not warn us to invoke protection before praying to the Father. Nor does it tell us to engage in spiritual practices that open doors to these unclean spirits.

Today, spiritual formation is spreading rapidly throughout colleges and seminaries. Richard Foster says the purpose of these meditation exercises is to create an inner sanctuary.^[vii] Proponents believe that through contemplation, one may "find God within."^[viii] Mr. Foster's meditation techniques include visualization,^[ix] which is tantric Buddhism. In visualization, one creates thinking pictures.^[x] Alice Bailey, the mother of the New Age Movement, says the secret to meditation is the ability to visualize. She says visualization is the first principle of the occult law, which states that "energy follows thought."^[xi]

Richard Foster also promotes Lectio Divina. In this meditation method, one repeats portions of Scripture like a mantra.^[xii] This produces an altered state of consciousness. It does not matter what the words are it is the pause between them that produces a trance. This is called getting in the gap. Therefore, Asbury Theological Seminary is teaching Eastern mysticism and Western esotericism (New Age and occult practices) to their students.

Currently, many are concerned that the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) may use the Asbury revival to spawn another event like the “Toronto Blessing.”^[xiii] Even worse, they could fan the flames of a national movement that would spread a counterfeit revival marked by mysticism, which is the key to merging all world religions to form one universal (apostate) church.

On February 23, 2023, the Collegiate Day of Prayer simulcast was hosted by Asbury Theological Seminary. This followed a two-week-long revival at Asbury. During the revival, The Collegiate Day of Prayer website hosted a campaign to adopt college campuses. This page states, “We want to see this generation raised up in revival and awakening.”^[xiv] Keep in mind that Asbury Seminary and other colleges that started revivals in response to Asbury appear on Lighthouse Trail’s “Spiritual Formation” (contemplative prayer) list. The authors of Lighthouse Trails voice their concern that students from these universities are being converted by these esoteric practices and beliefs. Meditation opens practitioners to seducing spirits, which leads them to Eastern mysticism.^[xv]

Moreover, the Collegiate Day of Prayer: 40-Day Prayer Guide, lists many members of the New Apostolic Reformation as contributing authors including Lou Engle.^[xvi] Other members of the NAR that connect with this event include worship leaders from the International House of Prayer (IHOP).^[xvii] Also, Allen Hood, M.Div. from Asbury Seminary serves as the Associate Director of IHOP.^[xviii] Francis Chan publicly endorses the NAR.^[xix] Also, Andy Roman says, Rick Warren of the Emergent Church Movement went to Asbury Seminary “to spread the revival to 20 million students on 4,300 college campuses.”^[xx] Before his retirement, Rick Warren promoted hard ecumenicalism, as he combined Catholicism, Islam, and evangelical traditions.^[xxi] It is clear that all religions are merging and this includes mystical tradition, which Revelation 17 calls Mystery Babylon.

In conclusion, the Bible does not say that a Godly revival will sweep the earth before the return of Christ. Instead, Mathew 24:24 says, "For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect" (KJV). The Bible says Jesus will not return until after the falling away from the truth. Second Thessalonians says:

“Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I told you these things? And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason, God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness” (2:3-12)."

BREAKING NEWS: Francis Chan, Rick Warren And NAR Were Already Planning A Revival At Asbury University In Video Released 7 Days Before It All Started – Now The End Begins - February 21, 2023 - By Geoffrey Grider

Excerpt: It looks like Rick Warren, Francis Chan and various members of the New Apostolic Reformation were already planning the Asbury Revival before it ever started

Well, you knew this was going to come out at some point, only a matter of when, and today seems to be the day for that revelation. I came across a video created by a group called the Collegiate Day of Prayer, and they work to create ‘revival’ on college campuses across America. The group is heavily embedded with people from the New Apostolic Reformation, Rick Warren, and all the usual suspects from the Emergent Church world. So, as the proverbial cat comes running out of the bag, Collegiate Day of Prayer had all this all set up and ready to go before the Asbury Revival spontaneously broke out. But please, don’t let all this ruin your fun of singing Hillsong music on auto-repeat for the next 155 hours.

How to Biblically Evaluate the “Asbury Revival” \(or any other revival\) – Growing4Life – Leslie Allebach – Article Jessica Fortney – 2/21/23

Excerpt: ...Whether you agree or disagree with it, I think this Asbury revival is of greater consequence than most of us realize. I’m going to do my best to show you how and why that is. I want to be clear that I’m not judging the motives or hearts of the people involved in this revival. I’m sure many of the people involved have true faith and are simply caught up in the excitement. And I hope that there are some students who have truly been saved or changed. God can use anything but that doesn’t make it right and good. I simply want to look at the idea of revival (specifically as represented at Asbury) as a whole.

In order to fully understand, I think we need to take a step back and look at church history over the past century. There has been a massive paradigm shift within Christianity over the past 100 years. It’s been slow and subtle, but it has completely transformed how Christianity is both viewed and practiced.

We have unequivocally shifted from true, Word-based Christianity to an experience-based, false Christianity. It is a direct result of Charismatic and Pentecostal beliefs slowly but purposefully permeating every mainline denomination. I’d like to share the details of how that happened historically but it will have to be in a separate post (Pastor Dean Good did delve into this in this sermon, if you’d like to get started in understanding.)

Exhort and Contend – Facebook Post – Connie Wright – 2/17/23

A Biblical Critique of the Asbury "Revival" – Because it was a FB post the complete article is posted.

For those sincerely wondering whether the Asbury "revival" is a move of God or not, please thoughtfully consider the following information by Ron Smith from his post (<https://tinyurl.com/mr3cjxp3>) on Feb. 15, 2023.

Here is the short video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WUVGQQn4b00>) spoken of in this post.

This is to add context to what is happening at Asbury University.

TRUTH matters...and any DISTORTION of truth must be met with FACTS.

You see...this video ALONE was posted BEFORE this "revival" began...with February 23, 2023, being "ground zero."

The Collegiate Day of Prayer has been planned for MONTHS...and what is happening at Asbury University is FAR from being a "spontaneous movement" as has been reported.

This was INTENTIONALLY begun as the "lead up" to this UPCOMING Collegiate Day of Prayer.

Those are the FACTS.

Further...this has ALREADY proven to be immersed in the NAR movement...with NUMEROUS leaders of that movement LISTED as being leaders and backers of what we are now seeing.

Again...those are the FACTS.

Folks...be sure of this:

God NEVER tells people to LIE about things...to HIDE things...to MISREPRESENT things for the sake of "revival."

Now...you may not CARE about the truth in all of this. You may be more willing to OVERLOOK the LIES and simply jump on the bandwagon.

That...of course...is your prerogative.

But...NEVER say someone did not tell you the TRUTH about all of this.

TRUTH matters. It TRULY does.

Folks..."moves of God" are now being HYPED and MANUFACTURED by MAN...and a FALSE ANOINTING...a FALSE version of REVIVAL...is being PUSHED and PRODDED and CHAMPIONED by MANY.

This is not a NEW "Great Awakening"...and...call it what you will...whether "prophecy" or "a word" or WHATEVER you wish...but hear me:

This will FURTHER the INFLUENCE of FALSE TEACHERS...FALSE PROPHETS...and...in the long run...this will DEVASTATE lives and homes and churches and denominations.

Curse me...hate me...despise me...unfriend me:

I do not care.

SOMEBODY has to SAY it!

The video I included WITH this post was posted to YouTube BEFORE this "revival" began.

It was used as PROMOTIONAL material for the Collegiate Day of Prayer...already scheduled for February 23, 2023...to be held at Asbury University.

That video ALONE touts the story of a "revival" which began on campus.... "spontaneously" ...after a 10 AM Chapel service.

It is the INITIAL premise of the ENTIRE video.

Francis Chan then IMMEDIATELY says it needs to happen AGAIN.

Was the initial SETUP for this publicity video done by CHANCE?

No.

It FULLY promotes the PREVIOUS revival...the "spontaneous revival" that occurred 50 years ago...and...it THEN says it needs to happen AGAIN.

Amazing...isn't it...that suddenly ANOTHER "spontaneous revival" occurs in the EXACT same way...or...so it is CLAIMED!

This promotion was HEAVILY pushed to the students of Asbury University.

If you can PRAYERFULLY watch the first minute+ of this video and not DISCERN the PSYCHOLOGICAL MANIPULATION being used to MAKE THIS HAPPEN...then...well...maybe DISCERNMENT is not one of your gifts.

The power of SUGGESTION is REAL and powerful...especially to eager college students...students who are told about what happened 50 years ago...and who are THEN told it should happen AGAIN...

Matthew 24:4-5, 11, 23-26 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.....11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. 23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. 24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. 25 Behold, I have told you before. 26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

Did you notice this phrase in the video: pray for their changed hearts so they can change the nation??

There it is. There is what is driving this all.

Instead of setting their minds on things above they have set them on the earth. (Col 3:1-2); instead of understanding the end and what God tells us is coming, they have bought a lie that the world will improve if only we do "a", "b", and "c".

The remnant continues to shrink (or appears to be shrinking as tares show their true colors) as the deception continues to grow.

May we set our minds firmly on God and His Word, submitting and obeying it without question. It is our only authority and our only defense.

Splash in the Love of Jesus? - Checking the Asbury "Revival" Receipts - 828 Ministries – Feb. 16, 2023 – Anthony Wade

Excerpt: ...Let us start with the fact that the apostate church is constantly seeking revival. It has become a buzzword. The great white whale of the NAR dominionist. The truth is the apostate church system worships this country. It idolizes this country. It does not seek the Lord or His return but rather a restoration to a fabled time of Shang-Ri-La. An Evangelical Utopia where they have conquered the seven cultural mountains, all laws passed represent the bible at some nebulous level, and they hold all the seats of importance in the world. It is pure nonsense of course. The actual result is the powers of carnality in this political world have co-opted their intents to secure their own power and even though the bible promises the great end times apostasy they are leading, they keep seeking the revival that is not promised scripturally.

The next important point deals with sincerity and intent. From everything I have seen, the students and even most faculty at Asbury seem very genuine. I do not question their intent. I do not doubt their sincerity. That said, their intent is irrelevant, and their sincerity does not matter. The only question at hand is what do we have here in Asbury? What started out innocently was reported out as revival. That drew the attention of some prominent wolves within churchianity. Todd Bentley was reportedly heading there with his congregation. Greg Locke hopped in the Locke bus and was driving there with his flock. Both men are serial adulterers and false teachers. Bentley's followers are heavy into the false signs and lying wonders theology and Locke is a hard core dominionist who says anyone who votes democratic is hell-bound and irretrievable. It is bad enough that men like this are now possibly on the ground in Kentucky, spreading their heresy but then we also have people like Isaiah Saldivar making absurd videos like the one linked above. Let us deal with the problematic aspects of his teaching, which is probably going to be adopted by many.

The Jesus Revolution Movie

Just a short personal commentary on the Jesus Revolution movie: I was told by John Todd, who came out of very high occult circles, whom I met in person in the late 1970's, that the globalist Illuminati group paid Chuck Smith many thousands of dollars to do exactly what he did – he introduced “rock” music into “Christian” worship through the Jesus people movement. Also, let me clearly state I have yet to discover in my research any Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) groups that are not ecumenical (pro-Rome).

Todd also stated that it was the goal of the Vatican to use the Charismatic Movement to bring evangelicals in mass back to Rome.

The Jesus Revolution? - Taigen Joos - Blog

Excerpt: Was the Jesus Movement transformational? When a person reads about the Jesus Movement and its people (called Jesus People) transformed lives are not immediately evident. Granted, a new convert does not always change everything overnight. However, there are certain practices that should change relatively quickly. The converted hippies continued in their hippie lifestyle, still experimenting in drugs and sexual escapades. Their appearance identified themselves more with the unconverted hippie movement than with a new life and “new creature” values.

This, perhaps, can be most easily seen in their leader, a man named Lonnie Frisbee, who is featured in the “Jesus Revolution” book and movie. Lonnie Frisbee’s claim of salvation is rooted in a time when he was 17 years old. While on an acid trip in a California wilderness, he stripped naked and called out, “Jesus, if you’re really real, reveal yourself to me.” He claims to have then seen a vision where hundreds of young people were being baptized in the waters off the coast of California. This sketchy salvation testimony led him to change his appearance to make himself look like an Old Testament prophet, or Jesus (the Hippie Jesus look so prevalent of his day). Frisbee became the defacto leader of the Jesus People movement.

Frisbee was instrumental in the various Jesus People ministries, and even helped start churches. But he was also involved in a homosexual lifestyle and continued to experiment with drugs. That is not the kind of Church leader that should be elevated as an example, as the Jesus Movement does. Frisbee eventually contracted HIV and died from AIDS in 1993.

The Jesus Movement was built on a theologically weak foundation, with a theologically weak man (if he was even truly converted) as its leader. Yet, it has been called a Holy Spirit Revival amongst young people in that day. The movement also produced theologically problematic fruit. The Jesus Movement was a major contributor to the modern Charismatic movement, as well as the modern Contemporary Christian Music movement. The trifecta of emotionalism, charismaticism, and cultural accommodation have been the key ingredients that have made the modern Contemporary Worship scene what it is today.

The ‘Jesus Revolution’ Movie And All The Other Current Media Promotions Of This ‘Another Jesus’ Are Paving The Way For Acceptance Of LGBTQIA+ In Churches - February 28, 2023 By Geoffrey Grider

Excerpt: The current ‘Jesus Revolution’ craze that is sweeping across America is not revival, but is paving the way for the inclusion and acceptance of LGBTQIA+ in the Church.

If you’ve been paying attention to all the various moving parts of the current ‘Jesus Revolution’ movie craze, you will find 2 themes that pop up constantly into all the various elements like the Asbury Revival, the ‘He Gets Us’ commercials, and all the rest. The first thing you’ll notice is that it preaches a gospel based on experience and emotions instead of the sound preaching of Paul’s gospel. The second thing you find is that the whole movement is working itself toward the acceptance and inclusion of LGBTQIA+ people in the Church. That’s the goal, that’s the end game, and if you are not on board, you’re the enemy.

Announcing New Book Release by Warren B. Smith: EVANGULLIBLE – Lighthouse Trails – Warren Smith - February 23, 2023 by Lighthouse Trails Editors

Lighthouse Trails is pleased to announce Warren B. Smith’s new book, Evangullible. The book, published by Mountain Stream Press, is now available through Lighthouse Trails.

Evangelical—in, of, or according to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the literal teachings of the Holy Bible.

Gullible—easily deceived.

Evangullible—easily deceived by teachings that contradict the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the literal teachings of the Holy Bible.

From the Back Cover: Over the last four decades, the unholy spirit and deceptive false teachings of a New Age/New Gospel have worked their way into an undiscerning and all-too-gullible church. Pastors and church leaders who years ago warned about New Age deception have hardly talked about it since. As a result, this New Gospel of the New Age is presently viewed by most believers as a long-ago past occurrence even as its overlapping terms, false teachings, and deceptive practices continue to creep into the church.

Thus, while many church leaders and pastors talk about the cultural challenges of the day and the need for revival, they say almost nothing about our Adversary’s spiritual schemes and devices.

And while these same leaders write dramatic books and letters exhorting the church to be “courageous,” to “speak out,” and to “not be silenced,” they have been effectively silenced themselves when it comes to spiritual deception in the church. Instead of exposing spiritual evil, contending for the faith, and fighting the good fight, they often advocate, endorse, or turn a blind eye to the very things they should be confronting.

Jesus Revolution Movie Exposed [video]– Safe Guard Your Soul

Excerpt:

Boom Alert: “If the Jesus movement was so effective since the 70s, where is the fruit? Is it not the lukewarm ecumenical ditch they call church?” Alan Ray

“I am Praying for those who are looking for the fake JESUS in the entertainment of [hollywood movies]- to seek the “Real JESUS” in the Holy Bible.” Dyanne Gonzales

“There is a big difference in ‘all HAVE sinned’ and those who continue to practice sin while claiming to be a preacher or evangelist! Seriously, I am so sick of that mantra being used (by wolf defenders) anytime a watchman does their job and warns!” Gloria Marshall Sykes

“I am a ‘product of’ The JESUS Revolution, so I went and saw it. I was disappointed: The Gospel was not clearly presented; JESUS’ resurrection was mentioned (in a passing statement); and God’s wrath was OVERTLY not mentioned. About mid-way through the movie John 3:16 was loosely quoted: in that the 2nd half mentioning “shall never perish, but have everlasting life” was left out. I guess I shouldn’t be surprised since darkness and light cannot co-exist.” Jefferson

“I was disappointed as well, not to mention the secular music played throughout the film wasn’t very fitting... for a “Christian” movie!” Rory

“In the movie, The Jesus Revolution, one of the stars of the movie said, ‘We are saved by the Holy Spirit.’ ... No! We are not saved by the Holy Spirit. We are saved by the blood of Jesus Christ ALONE AFTER the Holy Spirit has CONVICTED us and has drawn us to Jesus Christ. Because of the Holy Spirit’s wooing...and softening our heart...that causes us to see our sinful condition and repent and turn from our sins. The Holy Spirit did not suffer, bleed, shed His life’s blood and die on an old rugged cross for us. Only Jesus Christ did that.”

Barbara

“Avoid this movie (Jesus Revolution) like the plague. No true revival is led by a sodomite.”
Matt Setzer

Here Matt seems to be referring to Lonnie Frisbee who backslid, practice homosexuality, and died of aids. Of course, we hope he repented before it was too late and yet the statement above stands accurate in that apostates should not be celebrated. Such is not a testimony worthy of celebrating, especially when it’s unclear if Frisbee repented. Our sins have consequences (Galatians 6:7-8; 2 Samuel 12, etc.). There’s a video on youtube which shows Lonnie Frisbee

(1990) wearing the garb of a pagan catholic priest and even being called “father Lonnie.” Jesus specifically condemns and forbids calling any mere man “father.” (Matthew 23:9)

“The memory (legacy) of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.”

Proverbs 10:7

They are seeking to make a hero out of Lonnie Frisbee in order to condone what God calls an “abomination” – homosexuality! (Leviticus 18:22; Romans 1) This is the whole reason they are championing this unrepentant sodomite who died of aids as some spiritual hero. Only a lost soul would condone such. Everyone involved, including Greg Laurie, etc., has just told us all that they are of the devil.

“Deception is rampant in the world. Yes we can choose to do what we want...but if the Holy Spirit and God’s word tells us to avoid something, we should be obedient.” Barbara

“Why would any Christian want to see a movie about a “Christian” sodomite? As soon I heard it was about Lonnie Frisbee that was a big red flag. It’s clear to me with this movie, the sodomites at Asbury and Andy Stanley, that the Evangelical Church is being groomed to accept “Christian” homosexuals. I believe it’s only a matter of time before the Evangelical Churches capitulate to this and accept “Christian” homosexuals. Those of us who hold fast to the word of God and refuse to accept this will be considered the most hateful, un-Christlike bigots by this apostate Evangelical Church.” Lawrence

CONCLUSION:

Matthew 24:3-5 (KJV) And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

One of my greatest heartaches in my last 45+ years of research has been the blindness and the naiveite of many Christians regarding the battle for the truth of Scripture in this age of apostasy. It seems clear to me that according to Ephesians 6:11-18 we are all in the role of being a soldier, not the occupant of an easy chair floating to Heaven. We are commanded to take a stand.

Albert Barnes notes this regarding the wiles of the devil in Eph. 6:11:

Against the wiles of the devil.* The word rendered “wiles” meqodeia means, properly, that which is traced out with method; that which is methodized; and then that which is well laid--art, skill, cunning. It occurs in the New Testament only in Eph 4:14, and in this place. It is appropriately here rendered wiles, meaning cunning devices, arts, attempts to delude and destroy us. The wiles of the devil are the various arts and stratagems which he employs to drag souls down to perdition. We can more easily encounter open force than we can cunning; and we need the weapons of Christian armour to meet the attempts to draw us into a snare, as much as to meet open force. The idea here is, that Satan does not carry on an open warfare. He does not meet the Christian soldier face to face. He advances covertly; makes his approaches in darkness; employs cunning rather than power, and seeks rather to deceive and betray than to vanquish by mere force. Hence the necessity of being constantly armed to meet him whenever the attack is made. A man who has to contend with a visible enemy may feel safe, if he only prepares to meet him in the open field. But far different is the case if the enemy is invisible; if he steals upon us slyly and stealthily; if he practices war only by ambushes and by surprises. Such is the foe that we have to contend with--and almost all the Christian struggle is a warfare against stratagems and wiles. Satan does not openly appear. He approaches us not in repulsive forms, but comes to recommend some plausible doctrine, to lay before us some temptation that shall not immediately repel us. He presents the world in an alluring aspect; invites to pleasures that seem to be harmless; and leads us in indulgence, until we have gone so far that we cannot retreat.

I strongly encourage you to enlist in active-duty status as a soldier of Christ, placing all your trust in Him as we live in these apostate times.

Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son;
Strong in the Lord of hosts
And in His mighty pow'r,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued,
And take, to aid you in the fight,
The panoply of God.
From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle and fight and pray;
Tread all the pow'rs of darkness down
And win the well-fought day.

Leave no unguarded place,
No weakness of the soul;
Take ev'ry virtue, ev'ry grace,
And fortify the whole.
That, having all things done
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone
And stand complete at last.
